

ALAA ABUESBA

Alaa works closely with the Operations Manager and COO to provide operational support. Prior to joining Global Mentors Group, Alaa studied Psychology at Oxford Brookes University and Conflict and Development at SOAS University for her master's. She previously worked in various non-profit organizations, where she supported refugees and also acted as a Founding Trustee of a small community enterprise. In addition, she has worked in many business support roles in the education sector.

