

MICHELLE ZIVKOVIC

Michelle is CEO of CMi Merryck covering the Australia and New Zealand region.

Michelle joined CMi Merryck as CEO in 2022. She has a deep knowledge and understanding of partnering with and supporting C-Suite, Group HR Directors, Boards and senior leaders tackling issues including talent and leadership development, talent retention, transformation and change. Previously, Michelle's experience includes consulting, co-founder of a business and Partner at Odgers Berndtson where she led the HR, Transformation and Change practice across Australia. Previously, Michelle was a member of the Executive Leadership team at Directioneering. Michelle moved to Sydney to lead Directioneering's NSW business for five years, after initially spending more than six years with the firm in Melbourne. She provided expert counsel to organisations and individuals; before, during and after significant change.

