Jasmine Whitbread

Jasmine Whitbread is a senior leader with 20 years of experience in Sustainability and ESG - both working with the leaders of large listed businesses to navigate this increasingly critical set of issues, and in leading international NGOs, providing a uniquely valuable perspective.

Jasmine is Chair of Travis Perkins plc, a Non-Executive director and Chair of the Governance and Sustainability Committee of Compagnie Financiere Richemont SA, a Non-Executive Director and Compensation Committee Chair of WPP plc and a Non-Executive Director and Culture and Sustainability Committee Chair of Standard Chartered plc.

Jasmine was the first ever CEO of Save the Children International, aligning all 30 members of the federation behind a single mission, strategy and campaigning voice spanning over 100 countries.

Major Career Roles:
CEO of Save the Children International
Chair of Travis Perkins plc
NED & Governance and Sustainability Committee Chair of Compagnie Financiere Richemont SA
NED & Compensation Committee Chair of WPP plc
NED & Culture and Sustainability Committee Chair of Standard Chartered plc

Previous roles:
NED & Digital Impact and Sustainability Committee Chair of BT Group plc
CEO of London First
Trustee of the Disasters Emergency Committee
Division MD of Thomson Reuters Corp
Director of Global Marketing at Cortex Corp